1	paṭhavīdhātu	1. the earth element: is so called because, like the earth, it serves as a support or foundation for the coexisting material phenomena. The word paṭhavī comes from a root meaning to expand or spread out, and thus the earth element represents the principle of extension...Both hardness and softness are modes in which the earth element is experienced by the sense of touch.	hardness	to act as a foundation (for the other primary elements and derived matter)	receiving	the other three great essentials
2	āpodhātu	2. the water element: fluidity, makes different particles of matter cohere, thereby preventing them from being scattered about. -> unlike the other three great essentials, the water element cannot be physically sensed but must be known inferentially from the cohesion of observed matter.	trickling or oozing	to intensify the coexisting material states	the holding together or cohesion of material phenomena.	the other three great essentials
3	tejodhātu	3. the fire element: heat and cold are modes in which the fire element is experienced.	heat	to mature or ripen other material phenomena	a continuous supply of softness	the other three great essentials
4	vāyodhātu	4. the air element: the principle of motion and pressure. -> experienced as tangible pressure. -> Taken together, the four great essentials are founded upon the earth element, held together by the water element, maintained by the fire element, and distended by the air element.	distention	to cause motion in the other material phenomena	conveyance to other places	the other three great essentials

5	cakkhupasāda	1. eye-sensitivity: the sensitive substance in the retina that registers light and colour and serves as a physical base and door for eye-consciousness	sensitivity of the primary elements that is ready for the impact of visible data or that springs from the desire to see	to pick up a visible datum as object	the foundation of eye-consciousness	the primary elements born of kamma springing from a desire to see
6	sotapasāda	2. ear-sensitivity: is to be found inside the ear-hole, the sensitive substance that registers sounds and serves as a physical base and door for ear-consciousness.	sensitivity of the primary elements that is ready for the impact of auditory data or that springs from the desire to hear	to pick up an auditory datum as object	the foundation of ear-consciousness	the primary elements born of kamma springing from a desire to hear
7	ghānapasāda	3. nose-sensitivity: is to be found inside the nasal orifice, as the substance that registers smells.	sensitivity of the primary elements that is ready for the impact of olfactory data or that springs from the desire to smell	to pick up an olfactory datum as object	the foundation of nose-consciousness	the primary elements born of kamma springing from a desire to smell
8	jivhāpasāda	4. tongue-sensitivity: is to be found diffused over the tongue, serving to register tastes.	sensitivity of the primary elements that is ready for the impact of gustatory data or that springs from the desire to taste	to pick up a gustatory datum as object	the foundation of tongue-consciousness	the primary elements born of kamma springing from a desire to taste

9	kāyapasāda	5. body-sensitivity: extends all over the organic body "like a liquid that soaks a layer of cotton," and serves to register tactile sensations.	sensitivity of the primary elements that is ready for the impact of tactile data or that springs from the desire to touch	to pick up a tactile datum as object	the foundation of body-consciousness	the primary elements born of kamma springing from a desire to touch
10	rūpa	1. visible form: derived matter	impinging on the sense bases	to be the objects of sense consciousness	the resort of the respective sense consciousness	the four great essentials
11	sadda	2. sound: derived matter	impinging on the sense bases	to be the objects of sense consciousness	the resort of the respective sense consciousness	the four great essentials
12	gandha	3. smell: derived matter	impinging on the sense bases	to be the objects of sense consciousness	the resort of the respective sense consciousness	the four great essentials
13	rasa	4. taste: derived matter	impinging on the sense bases	to be the objects of sense consciousness	the resort of the respective sense consciousness	the four great essentials

14	purisatta	1. the faculty of masculinity	the male sex	to show masulinity	the mark, sign, work, and ways of the male, the sexual structure of the body, its masculine features, the typical masculine occupations and deportment
15	itthatta	2. the faculty of femininity	the female sex	to show femininity	the mark, sign, work, and ways of the female, the sexual structure of the body, its feminine features, the typical feminine occupations and deportment
16	hadayavatthu	1. the heart base: is to be found in dependence on the blood inside the heart, and is assisted by the four great essentials and maintained by the life faculty.	the material support for the mind element and the mind-consciousness element	to uphold them	the carrying of these elements
17	jīvitindriya	1. the life faculty: the material counterpart of the mental life faculty, one of the seven universal cetasikas. Life, or vitality, is called a faculty because it has a dominating influence over its adjuncts.	maintaining the coexistent kinds of matter at the moment of their presence	to make them occur	the establishment of their presence	the four great essentials that are to be maintained.
18	kabaḷīkāra āhāra	1. edible food:	nutritive essence (ojā), that is, the nutritional substance contained in gross edible food.	to sustain the physical body	the fortifying of the body	gross edible food, which is the base of nutritive essence

19	ākāsadhātu	1. the space element: is not bare geometric extension but the void region that delimits and separates objects and groups of material phenomena, enabling them to be perceived as distinct.	delimiting matter	to display the boundaries of matter	the confines of matter, the state of gaps and apertures	the matter delimited
20	kāyaviññatti	1. bodily intimation: is that by means of which one communicates one's ideas, feelings, and attitudes to another; a special modification in the consciousness-originated air element which causes the body to move in ways that reveal one's intentions.		to display intention	a cause of bodily movement	the air element born of consciousness
21	vacīviññatti	2. vocal intimation: a special modification in the consciousness-originated earth element which issues in speech by which one reveals one's intentions.		to display intention	a cause of verbal expression	the earth element born of consciousness
22	rūpassa lahutā	1. the lightness of matter:	non-sluggishness	to dispel heaviness in matter	light transformability	light matter
23	rūpassa mudutā	2. the malleability of matter:	non-rigidity	to dispel rigidity in matter	non-opposition to any kind of action	malleable matter
24	rūpassa kammaññatā	3. the wieldiness of matter:	wieldiness that is favourable to bodily action.	to dispel unwieldiness	non-weakness	wieldy matter

25	rūpassa upacaya	1. the production of matter: the first arising of a material process, the initial launching or setting up of the process. For example, the arising of the body, sex and heart groups at conception	setting up	to make material instances emerge for the first time	launching or the completed state	the matter produced
26	rūpassa santati	2. the continuity of matter: the repeated genesis of material phenomena in the same material process. The subsequent arising of those same material groups throughout life.	occurence	to anchor	non-interruption	matter to be anchored
27	rūpassa jaratā	3. the decay of matter:	the maturing or aging of material phenomena	to lead them on towards their termination	loss of newness without loss of being	matter that is decaying
28	rūpassa aniccatā	4. the impermanence of matter:	the complete breaking up of material phenomena.	to make them subside	destruction and falling away	matter that is completely breaking up
