Characteristic, Function, Manifestation & Proximate Cause

(lakkhaṇa-rasa-paccupaṭṭhāna-padaṭṭhāna)

Four defining devices

To elucidate the nature of any ultimate reality, the Pali commentators propose four defining devices by means of which it can be delimited. These four devices are:

(1) its characteristic (lakkhaṇa), i.e. the salient quality of the phenomenon; (C)
(2) its function (rasa), its performance of a concrete task (kicca-rasa) or achievement of a goal (sampatti-rasa);(F)
(3) its manifestation (paccupaṭṭhāna), the way it presents itself within experience, mode of manifestation (upaṭṭhānākāra-paccupaṭṭhāna) or mode of effect (phala-paccupaṭṭhāna); (M)
(4) its proximate cause (padaṭṭhāna), the principal condition upon which it depends. (P)

If you want to define each of materiality according to characteristic, etc., you must first analyse the kalapa which you want to define, for example, eye tenfold kalapa (eye-decad-kalapa), and then you must define the materiality which you want to do so, for example, earth-element. In the eye-door, there are fifty-four types of materiality you should define them one by one. In the same way you must try other doors, forty-two parts, etc., as mentioned in previous teachings. Now we would like to translate (explain) them one by one briefly, and you should learn them by heart either in English or in Pali.

The purification of view (diṭṭhi-visuddhi)

To develop the seven stages of purification a meditator must first develop the purification of virtue (sīla-visuddhi) followed by purification of mind (citta-visuddhi). Having achieved purification of mind he can develop the purification of view (diṭṭhi-visuddhi).

In the abhidhammattha saṅgaha it is stated that:

"Lakkhaṇa -rasa- paccupaṭṭhāna- padaṭṭhāna- vasena nāma -rūpa -pariggho diṭṭhi-visuddhi nāma."

(chapter 9, visuddhibhedo)

Which translates as:

"The discerning of mentality (nāma) and materiality (rūpa) according to characteristic, function, manifestation, and proximate cause is called purification of view."
